Criminal Intelligence Systems Training

Operating Policies

Indianapolis, Indiana
March 22, 2007

About the Training:

The U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), is offering a training program that focuses on the federal guideline governing the operation of federally funded criminal intelligence systems—28 CFR Part 23. The regulation strikes a balance between the need for law enforcement to collect and disseminate criminal intelligence information and an individual's privacy rights. This training is designed for agencies that operate, participate in, or plan to establish a multijurisdictional criminal intelligence system.

Training Includes:

- ◆ Training Overview and Resources
- ◆ 28 Code of Federal Regulations Part 23
- ◆ Complying With the Regulation
- ◆ Storing Criminal Intelligence
- ◆ Inquiry and Dissemination
- ◆ Review and Purge

Training is coordinated by the Institute for Intergovernmental Research[®] (IIR).

Attend if Your Agency:

- ◆ Operates a criminal intelligence system that is governed by 28 CFR Part 23;
- ◆ Participates in a criminal intelligence system such as a RISS center, HIDTA, or a state intelligence system; or
- ◆ Is considering establishing a multijurisdictional criminal intelligence system.

No Tuition or Registration Fee:

There is no registration fee. Travel/per diem expenses are the responsibility of the attendee. This class is made possible through funding from BJA to IIR.

Class size is limited to 50 participants. Register online at <http://www.iir.com/registration/28cfr.cfm>, or complete the registration form on the reverse side and return it via fax or mail.
